

I don't believe that cell phone use should be permitted on aircraft. In flight phone conversations would be extremely disruptive to passengers, given their proximity to one another.

Thank you for your consideration.